RACING AT HAWTHORNE.

Hawthorne racing was scarcely out of the ordinary. A pleasing innovation was the stretching out of the distance for two-year-olds, the first race being run at three-quarters of a mile, as also the conditions by which the youngsters were forced to carry somewhere near weight for age. The day was a perfect one with its clear sky and gentle breezes. The attendance was the average one. The feature of the day was the fine form shown by Hugh Penny in winning from Imp, and the others in a common gallop. He could have beaten Imp seventy-five yards, and is most likely just at present the best handicap horse in the west.

For the first race there was the usual number of good things. First it was Merops, for some remembered her performance at Washington Park, then Prince Dudley was talked of, he being said to be nearly as good as Hardy Pardee in the same stable, but finally the right royal tip came "Capsicum sure," and this colt carrying the orange of John Rodegop, although running in the name of T. W. Moore, was backed so strongly from 10 to 1 down that some of the weak-kneed of the sixteen regular book-makers of the day had only 3 to 1 posted at the close of the betting while 5 to 1 was his best price. Blue Lick was bet on by the facetious, one of whom remarked: "He will cause a whole lot of running." Rio Chico was off in front to a well bunched start, although considerable jostling knocked four horses out of it at once, one of these being Capsicum. Rio Chico set a hot pace and was not caught until a half mile had been covered, where Harry Nutter tagged him close and when ready ran over him, winning by several lengths. In a hard drive Numa beat Capsicum, who ran an extraordinary race, but was disqualified, Capsicum given place honors and the third money handed to the owner of Lurdan who finished lengths behind Capsicum and just beat Rio Chico. The others were well back. The judges said that Numa bumped Capsicum close to the wire and that he had interfered with several horses in the run through the home stretch. Conley, who rode Capsicum, entered complaint but this was unnecessary.

Bruen showed a nice bit of management in getting Sutton away with the others. This horse had danced sideways to the post, where landing he acted badly. Bruen had Thorpe stand two lengths away from the barrier with his horse's head turned the wrong way, then lining up the other horses, the starter gave his assistant a signal, whereupon Sutton was wheeled around and fairly thrown into his stride, so that the seven starters were nearly abreast after two jumps on the journey. Sutton soon took the lead and was never in trouble, although hurried along at the last eighth he swerved slightly. Borden ran alongside of Sutton to the last turn where Friar John took his place and Tranby was about as good as the next. La Princessa, well up until now, here shut up, as did Borden. Friar John won the place easily, while W. C. T., finishing strongly, beat Tranby for third money. Lucid kicked La Princessa at the post.

In the third race Eugenia Wickes acted strangely at the post, and not caring to break, was off badly in the rear position. She at once ran to Imp and passed to the lead as the back stretch was made. Hugh Penny ran third close up at the half, where Buckvidere was four lengths behind the favorite and David six lengths farther back. Around the upper turn Imp was seen to have Eugenia Wickes safe, but as the leaders turned for home, Thorpe took Hugh Penny in next the rails (the track is again dry and hard), and in a sixteenth the race was over. Imp stopped at the eighth post and Hugh Penny finished alone. David got up in time to secure third money.

Candelaria was in such bad company that it didn't look possible for him to lose. Thorpe set him agoing after three-quarters had been run, and the favorite, passing all the others, allowed Organ Pilot to lead on sufferance to the last hundred yards, and then, lying alongside the long shot, beat him at the wire from the shoulders out amid the din occasioned by the clamor of the women in the grand stand who always have a bet on J. Reiff, and wildly fancied that this crack bantam could lift Organ Pilot to the front. It was a cruel thing—this "Murphy finish"—for Thorpe to do, for he might have been arrested for causing a woman's death by heart disease. Serena had been left standing at the post. The leaders the first five-eighths were Pete Kitchen (who finally was beaten an eighth and pulled up on equal terms with Parole d'Or, who showed a flash of speed up the back stretch), Organ Pilot and Croesus; but Organ Pilot here ran out in the lead, and Candelaria and Morte Fosse were next, with Moncreith trailing. Morte Fosse finished third, far back of the leaders and just ahead of Moncreith. Ezell's old horse had at one time stood at 20, 8, 3, and at these prices he was bet on by the owner and his party. Serena galloped over the course.

The fifth race was noticeable only because of the fifteen "dogs" carded all faced the starter. Warren Point, picked out from the first as the favorite, ran second all the way to Tom Toher, and when "let down" romped home, a matter which demonstrated the class of those behind. Tom Toher finished second and Idle Hour (always in like position) third. No others were in sight except Amanda and Lucky Monday. Coronatus threw his jockey (Sheppard) soon after leaving the post and ran twice around the track, then stopping, quite ready to go to bed. Rutter, on Warren Point, struck McNickle, on Tom Toher, with the whip at the head of the home stretch and was fined $25 and suspended for the meeting. Rutter admitted the assault, but said it was justified by the crowding, but Judge Rees said: "We will do the punishing."

For the closing event it was "6 to 1, take your pick" although Ald. Carey's "polisman's boss" went favorite at the finish at 4 to 1. Not this season has there been seen a race over which there was so much whispering in the ring, and the "good things" were many. One of these, Elsie Bramble, the property of W. Ham, got off in front and was not headed although given the persuaders at the last sixteenth by one Jockey Rose, who must be credited with steady improvement in the saddle. Elsie Bramble was backed from 15 down to 8 to 1. Millie M. and Mistletoe were left standing at the post. Bishop Reed looked to be going nicely in second position a furlong out, then he dropped into the bunch, but so far from being beaten, came on in the straight and ran third just behind the second horse, Inspector Hunt. Cherryflame got off none too well or she might have won. Her effort on the far turn proved too great, and although she was second from the head of the homestretch to the last hundred yards, she died away, but finished close in behind Bishop Reed, as did Bryan.

Rutter said: "In the hurry and confusion I failed to state to Judge Rees that I whipped McNickle for self protection. The boy cut my boot with his spur and I feared further injury. It is not the first time he has 'roughed' me and I lost a race at Harlem through such work of his. Other jockeys, I think, will testify to this

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:02½.
Winner—B. c. by Islington—Songstress.
Start good. Won driving. Kinley Mack was the best and the soft going suited him. He was pocketed on the elbow turn. Manuel, favored in the weight and at home over the cuppy going, closed strong. He will improve. Captain Sigsbee stopped as usual. He apparently dislikes the Futurity course. He ran differently at Brighton. Ned Wickes ran well. Mr. Phinizy is best over a fast track. He stopped badly today, which is unusual with him. St. Lorenzo got off badly.

Scratched—Lady Lindsay, 109; Mark Miles, 112; Armament, 117; Ben Viking, 117.

Overweights—Sugden, 1 pound.
Kinley Mack, place, 2 to 5; Manuel, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Captain Sigsbee, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Br. g. by Hindoo—Ben-Ma-Curee.
Start good. Won driving. Ben Ronald lacked his usual speed throughout, but got a strong ride. Maximo Gomez was bothered and carried wide around the first turn. He should have won. He was eased at the end and was caught napping. Joe Miller beat the flag and pressed his advantage, hence his good showing. He had no chance in the finish, but was a good horse today. Hanwell was overweighted. Filament is of little account.

Scratched—The Winner, 101.

Ben Ronald, place, 1 to 3. Maximo Gomez, place, 1 to 2.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:01½, 1:12.
Winner—Blk. f. by Kantaka—Queenie.
Start good. Won easily. There was a delay at the post of 50 minutes. Black Venus was easily the best and had to be. She is a crackerjack of the first order. Prestidigitatrice got a lucky break, liked the going and is improving. Lady Lindsay favored the track and ran a fine race. La Penitente woke up again. Whiplash has been sick and lack of condition made her stop. High Degree ran a bad race and was pulled up as beaten early. The same applies to Effervescent. Throw out both races. Except as to the winner the race does not count as to form.

Scratched—Veracious, 100.
Black Venus, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5; Prestidigitatrice, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Lady Lindsay, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. f. by Fenelon—Floretta.
Start good. Won easily. Fenetta was best and favored by the soft going. Slasher closed a big gap. He will do best on a dry track. Trianon came strongly at the end under poor handling. Dr. Withrow tired in the soft going. It was a very bad lot.

Scratched—Tyrian, 92; Julius Caesar, 109.

bad methods. When Judge Rees learns McNickle's ways, I hope he will reinstate me."

After the barrier went up in the last race and Martin and Conley saw they were both left, Martin turned to Conley and said: "Let us have a race between ourselves," and off they went at top speed. Martin beat Conley home and seems as well pleased as though he had won a race.

A. Covington "ran up" Candelaria (in at $1,000) and Jimmy McCormick let the Burns & Waterhouse horse go at $1,500. He then turned around and claimed Organ Pilot (in at $500) so taking the gelding away from A. Covington.

Secretary Kuhl calls attention to Friday's card, which he thinks will prove the best of the meeting. It certainly looks well on paper and a fine track insures a large list of starters.

Winner—Br. m. by Amphion—Starlight.
Start good. Won driving. Lambent liked the damp going and beat the gate. She improves daily and is wonderfully game and a fine weight carrier. Hanlon liked the soft going, and high weighted closed strong at the end. St. Callatine quit after hooking up with Lambent in a fast eighth on the far turn. She wants fast, dry going anyway. Lady Mitchell had a stormy journey and got bad handling. She closed strong at the end. So did Rissifer. Rinaldo II. is apparently out of form. Murillo wants a heavy track. Mizpah a fast one.

Scratched—Bon Ito 110; Excalibur, 110; Miss Miriam, 124; Leedsville, 132; Maceo, 138.
Lambent, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Hanlon, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. St. Callatine, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. c. by Turco—Sister Louise.
Start good. Won driving. Bannock outclassed his field. He went lame at the eighth pole and still came on and won. Arquebus closed very fast at the end. He was nicely handled and appeared to be favored by the soft grass course. He is a fair horse. Bon Ino tired badly after going three-quarters. She will do better over the regular track. Glonone ran well but is only ordinary.

*Disqualified for foul.

Winner—Ch. c. by Harry O'Fallon—Vena N.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; it was a long, hard drive for the place. Harry Nutter was lucky. He had a clear path all the way and Rose brought him out to the center of the track where the going was best. The colt showed a lot of speed his last start, but bolted. Numa ran an extra good race. He never could find an opening down the back stretch and was much used making up ground on the far turn. When it came to a drive, Goodwin could not keep his mount straight and he bumped into and interfered with Capsicum. The latter was tiring badly through the stretch and could not possibly have got the place had not the foul been allowed. The decision was right in line, however. Lurdan had a rough journey. With clear sailing he would have been a keen contender. Merops was short on speed, but was in a bad place down the back stretch and could never get out. Prince Dudley is a grand looker. He was hardly fit today, being high in flesh. He was prominent at the half mile pole where he was sharply cut off and had to pull up. Rio Chico showed great speed. The start in this race was a pretty one.

Scratched—Calchas, 118; Major Bell, 108; Mint Sauce, 115; Nilmah, 113.

Overweights—Judge Wofford, 2 pounds; Blue Lick, 1.

Corrected weights—Merops, 113.

Harry Nutter, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Capsicum, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Lurdan, show, 4 to 5.

8348 SECOND RACE—7-8 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. c. by Red Iron—Lillie Wright.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; second mildly driven; third and fourth driving hard. Sutton was heavily played. He was the best of a bad lot, and under good handling won as he pleased. It looked on the far turn as though the colt was in trouble, but when straightened out he drew away from those in front as though they were tied. Friar John ran a good race. He is in winning form. W. C. T. outran the first part of it, came strong on the end. This fellow's forte is speed, and it seems queer he was outrun. Tranby took the long route; but for that he surely would have been third. La Princessa ran a better race than the figures show. Watch her at three-quarters under light weight. Borden's wind is affected and he tired badly at the end. A strong breeze blowing up the stretch was the cause of this.

Scratched—Hermoso, 112; Sunny, 110; Muskadine, 111; Monk Wayman, 111; Diggs, 114.

Corrected weights—Tranby, 122.

Winner—B. g. by Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward.

Post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second with something left after an early drive. Hugh Penny is in good form and played with his field. Thorpe placed him nicely down the back stretch and got through on the rail at the turn for home. Imp is rounding to. She showed a sharp turn of speed, and considering her weight ran a clever race. David trailed the field all down the back stretch and made up a lot of ground the last eighth. Eugenia Wickes is purely a sprinter. She hardly ran three-quarters to-day before she went to pieces. Buckvidere seemed to labor all the way.

Imp, place, even; show, 1 to 2. David, show, 3 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Midlothian—Cosette.

Post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won hand ridden; second driving hard; third and fourth also driving. Candelaria was the best, but had to be hard ridden to win. Thorpe took no chances to get shut off with the colt and down the back stretch moved up on the outside. He got to Organ Pilot on the turn, but the latter drew away again at the eighth pole. Thorpe then went to the whip. This caused Candelaria to bear in a trifle. Thorpe then laid his whip aside and rode a clever race with his hands and heels. Organ Pilot, well played at a long price, came very near landing. He seemed to like Reiff's riding and hung on longer than usual. Morte Fonse was under a drive the last half. He and Moncreith had a battle royal for third place. Both ran creditable races. Serena refused to break and was left. The winner was entered to be sold for $1,000, but was run up to $1,500 and bought in by A Covington.

Organ Pilot, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Morte Fonse, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Bishop—Guilaura.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won: sed up; second mildly driven; third and fourth driving to the limit. Warren Point was the best and had some luck too. He got off well on his stride and galloped all the way. Tom Toher may have been a trifle short. He displayed a sharp turn of speed but weakened at the end. Watch this fellow. He will improve from this race. Idle Hour had no excuses. He seemed to sulk down the back stretch but came again at the end under a strong ride. The race was always between the first five. Coronatus was in the middle of the bunch when the boy fell off and it was a miracle he escaped unhurt.

Overweights—Herman Kahn, 21 pounds; Eliza Blaze, 1.

Winner—B. f. by Bramble—Elsie Gaylord.

Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and staggering; second and third were doing their best. Elsie Bramble was a well played "good thing." She was off with the track and had the speed of the party, although she was tiring fast at the end. Inspector Hunt ran a game race. So did Bishop Reed. The latter would probably have won with a better ride. He was badly messed about down the back stretch but was running over horses at the finish. Cherryflame was too much used early. Bryan's race was a fair one. Dr. Marks could never get through. Beau Monde is a quitter.

Delicate was messed about and badly ridden. Venetian is of little account.
